FREEDOM FROM HUNGER

This fall, the Valley Forge Tourism & Convention Board is proud to kick off their 9th annual Freedom from Hunger drive! The Valley Forge Freedom from Hunger Food Drive was created as a farewell "gift" to Pope Francis in 2015 when the Pontiff stayed in Montgomery County at the St. Charles Borromeo Seminary during the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia. Now in its ninth year, the drive continues to support the community that the tourism board diligently promotes to visitors across the nation and around the world. Earlier this year, the organization hosted their first ever spring drive, surpassing their goal by raising the monetary equivalent of 32,040 pounds of food. This brought the organization's lifetime contribution to over 164,000 pounds of food.
