The performances will take place on Saturday Dec. 7 at 7pm as well as Sunday Dec. 8 at 3pm utilizing over thirty local performers that will take Clara from her living room on Christmas Eve, through the Land of Snow, to be greeted by the Sugar Plum Fairy in the Land of Sweets. Deliah & Dean

Located in the heart of downtown Pottstown at 219 East High Street, Deliah & Dean is a new market providing high quality, healthy food options. With organic produce, non-GMO gluten-free products and items for personal as well as pet care, this store has a wide variety of foods and products to help achieve and maintain good health. The store owners, Ronald & Dena Reeves, aim to help cultivate a better neighborhood by inspiring people to change the way they shop for groceries.

The store carries Dena's nickname "Dean" and is also named after Dena's mother, Deliah, who instilled in her family the values of warmth, hospitality, kindness and the importance of good health.

"We do this so people in Pottstown can have a local neighborhood grocery store with fresh, healthy food," said Dena. People from the neighborhood who come into Deliah & Dean comment that they are thrilled to see such a bright and pleasant place to shop in Pottstown.

Simply put, Deliah & Dean is basically all about healthy living. It's as simple as that! They enjoy providing good food, whether organic, non-GMO, or farm fresh. During the fall, Deliah & Dean will host food sampling and professional cooking demonstrations to teach shoppers how to prepare foods and eat better. Still, the store has plenty of healthy chips and natural sodas. And in contrast to what is available in large chain and other local grocery stores, Deliah & Dean shoppers can find a wide variety of food options to support plant-based diets for vegans and vegetarians.
