Introducing PremierNow PREMIER PAYROLL SERVICES GOT A FACELIFT!

Premier Payroll is excited to reintroduce themselves as PremierNow! With a fresh look and a new website, the team at PremierNow looks forward to serving clients with the same exceptional level of service that they have for over 24 years as Premier Payroll Services.

Part of the motivation behind the change was the plethora of nicknames Premier has collected over the years. President Sarah Coveney explains that "People have called us all kinds of things over the past 24 years. PP, PPS, Premier Pay, Premier, etc. There are a lot of other "premier" companies out there, so we wanted to eliminate some of the confusion while giving ourselves a modern look."

More than Just Payroll

The name PremierNow matches the domain name of their website and reminds people that they offer more than just payroll. Their flexible, secure, full-service platform manages payroll, benefits, talent management, and more.

What Clients can Expect

Clients can expect to receive the same best-in-class service they have come to expect. PremierNow's website domain is the same – but clients can look forward to easier navigation, brighter colors, and a new look. The colors in the new logo are an homage to their history - but have a fresh feel.
