

E. Kenneth Nyce Law Office — A Tradition of Excellence

E. Kenneth Nyce Law Office is the oldest continually operating law firm in Boyertown, Pennsylvania. E. Kenneth Nyce founded the firm in 1959 and diligently represented clients throughout the area as a general practitioner for nearly fifty years before passing in 2008. Mr. Nyce practiced law very personally, showing the utmost courtesy and respect toward his clients.

Firm partners Mark Dischell, John Dooley, Jonathan Young, Eric Frey, and Nicole Manley are committed to continuing Attorney Nyce's tradition of personal and loyal service to clients throughout Southeastern Pennsylvania. The firm represents individuals, insurers, businesses, and government agencies. The attorneys are experienced professionals in litigation, personal injury, real estate law, municipal law, employment law, workers' compensation, family law, wills & estate administration, Medicaid planning, and more.

The attorneys and staff have an intimate knowledge of the area and its people. The firm prides itself on its strong local connections, and direct Boyertown roots. Staff members Andrea Swavely, Marie Brinckman, Susan Geiger, Shelly Wronowski, and Renee Beadencup have served the clients of E. Kenneth Nyce Law Office for many decades and continue to be an invaluable asset to the firm.

E. Kenneth Nyce Law Office stays informed of the latest laws, news, and legal decisions, understanding their potential impact on clients. The firm's diverse and extensive experience, coupled with its unwavering dedication, enables the effective resolution of various legal issues. Having proudly served the community for over 60 years, the firm is a trusted resource and is honored to continue delivering comprehensive legal services to the area.
