Classic Returns with Extended Sections for a Superb Holiday Experience

The Pottstown Dance Theatre Repertory Ensemble brings back their Holiday classic, "The Nutcracker" to Boyertown Area High School on Dec. 9 at 7pm and Dec. 10 at 2pm; and they are adding two sections that will blow your mind and delight your senses! Under the direction of international dance artist Michelle Jones Wurtz, the production will include an extended battle scene and a brand-new moment entitled "Clara's Conflict" inspired by the greatest dancer of the 20th Century, Mikhail Baryshnikov. The experience will be a Holiday treat for the entire family!

One of the reasons "The Nutcracker" is a family favorite is the inclusion of dances from various cultures, particularly in the second act. There is dance with a Spanish flare, Eastern European flare, Swiss, Chinese, and even Middle Eastern, making something for every taste and background. Kelsey Nieckoski Noble has added choreography in various parts and will be performing support roles throughout the production. Lucy Boone and Haley Iannarino will be sharing the lead role of Clara as well as the nutcracker, while Teagan Lee and Holly Lucas will be performing roles such as Sugar Plum Fairy and Snow Queen. THE ENTIRE PRODUCTION UTILIZES ONLY LOCAL TALENT! Pottstown Dance Theatre (PDT) has trained their dancers so well, roles normally given to paid guest artists are given to the talented students and STILL

THEY ARE THE ONLY LOCAL PRODUCTION THAT RECEIVES FUNDING FROM THE PA COUNCIL ON THE ARTS! Their former dancers now perform professionally in Cleveland, in Houston, and many in Philadelphia. This is a professional level production with local prices for the audience!

Tickets are available at Pottstown Dance Theatre (72 W. Main St., Pottstown PA 19465), by calling 610.323.2569, and online at www.pottstowndance.com.
