

Baer Romain & Ginty, LLP

Not Your Typical Law Firm

From the moment you walk through our doors, or see us on Zoom, you will quickly realize we are not your typical law firm. You may be met with our “Paralegal” French Bulldog, Meatball Ginty, or a kiddo or two. We will often be dressed in jeans or business casual, because our office is our second home. You see, we are just like you: parents and community members, trying our best to thrive in uncertain times. When you come through our doors, we welcome you into our home, and we see you as you are — a Mother, a Father, a hardworking person who got into a tough situation, or someone who just needs help navigating the nerve wracking waters of a lawsuit.

Baer Romain & Ginty, LLP, is located in Phoenixville where it was founded nearly three decades ago. Our firm’s mission is to provide excellent legal representation for the individuals we represent with compassion, integrity, and a deep routed knowledge of the areas of our legal expertise: family law (divorce, custody, support), criminal law, personal injury, real estate transactions, landlord tenant, and estates.

We have concentrated our practice in Chester and Montgomery Counties so that we are familiar with the Judges, Conciliators, Hearing Officers, and procedures in each county. Knowing the terrain of each court is incredibly important to your case.

Our goal is to ensure our clients know exactly what is happening, in terms they can understand, at all times. As a result, you can rest assured that we will listen to you, understand your needs, and work toward the most beneficial outcome possible, given the facts of your case. Call us to schedule a consultation. We are on your side and ready to help with experienced, effective, and compassionate representation.

 ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Stephen I. Baer, Brooke R. Ginty, and Jennifer Hulnick

“Brooke has represented me through a very difficult and complicated custody matter. She has been responsive and diligent in her representation — always giving me levelheaded advice while maintaining compassion for me, my children, and even my ex-husband. She is sharp & strategic in her ability to navigate the tortuous world of Family Court. She can be assertive while also keeping professional decorum, ethics, and the best interest of the children front & center. I respect her deeply both as an attorney and as a person. I would highly recommend her as a trusted advisor and advocate.” — C.E. (Google)

“I could not be any happier with the services of Brooke and Stephen during a difficult time! The firm is fantastic and has a lot of experience that is second to none. It was very nice that they were working for me and not my wallet as many lawyers tend to do. They took the time to educate you, coach you, explain the options and outcomes, and develop plans to support your end goals. Very trustworthy and highly recommend to anyone.” — A.L. (Google)
