

HERBEIN + COMPANY, INC. (HERBEIN) ADMITS SIX NEW PARTNERS

Leading CPA advisory firm Herbein + Company, Inc. (Herbein) has admitted 6 new partners, effective October 1. The 2023 partner class represents a wide variety of expertise and experience across the organization.

"Our new partners share a focus on exceptional client service that is reflective of the outstanding talent at our firm," said Herbein CEO David Stonesifer. "These emerging leaders enhance the firm with their diverse skills and perspectives. I look forward to seeing where their leadership and track record of professional excellence takes their clients – and our firm – in the years ahead."

Working in different services and industries at Herbein, the new partners embody Herbein's mission of helping our clients succeed with confidence.

"We are delighted to build on our partnership with these incredibly talented people," added Stonesifer. "They are exceptional professionals who uphold the rigorous standards and inclusive work culture that make us the firm we are. I congratulate and welcome each of these individuals into the Herbein partnership."

Congratulations to Herbein's newest partners: Bryanna L. Fredericks, CPA; Jennifer L. Hartkorn, CPA; Brian D. Jamnik, CPA; Paula D. Markle, CPA; Megan N. Thompson, CPA; and Jeffrey A. Yaniro, CPA.

Our firm's growth goals are a vital element of how we grow the Herbein partnership. In addition to defining how we lead our firm, firm partners play an essential role in our growth by connecting our team, our clients, and our communities.

This year's admissions to the partnership affirm our strategic focus on sustainable growth - and is the largest new partner group in firm history
